

Mojo

My name is Mojo and I have been trying to get my Mom to write my Happy Beginnings story for the whole two years since she adopted me. She has been dealing with some issues with her foot and has had several surgeries. So I decided to write my own Happy Beginnings Story. When Dalmatian Rescue found me in a shelter, they took me to a house where I met this really nice man named Karl. I was scared because I didn't know what was happening to me. When I got to Karl's house I felt safer than I had in a long time. I met Lisa who said Karl was her person and then I met Linda. She had recently had surgery on her ankle and had this metal thing (she called it an external fixator) around her ankle with a bunch of pins in her ankle. She tried to get me to come up on the bed where she had to stay at the time, so I jumped up and kissed her and I fell in love with her. I decided I was going to stay there and protect her so nobody could hurt her.

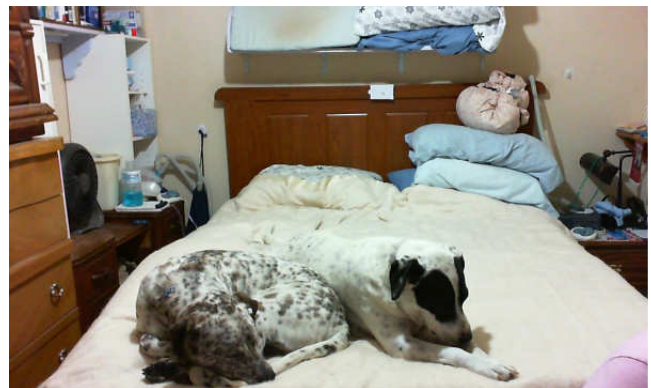

After a few months someone started looking at me and said she might want to adopt me. Later that night when her husband, Dudley, came to bed Linda asked him if they could adopt me so I can stay there and not let anybody else adopt me. I am deaf so I didn't know what she was asking. All I know is that Linda started smiling and hugged me for a long time. Linda and Dudley talked to Karl and he said "Ok", then they talked to Beth who is so nice and she said yes. So they adopted me. They became my Mommy and Daddy. I was so happy!!!! So two years later, I am a very happy doggy and I love my mom and dad so much and I love my Uncle Karl and Lisa. There have been a few new dogs that come here for a while until somebody adopts them and I do everything I can to make sure they are not scared while they are here because there is nothing to be scared about here. There are no mean people and we always have a nice comfy bed and plenty of food and lots of loving.

*– Mojo S.
Colorado Springs, CO*

Lisa, Tim and Mojo playing in the backyard

Mojo and Lisa chilling on the bed

Mojo napping on his Mom & Dad's bed
