

Sadie Rose

(aka Sadie10)

Sadie, Sadie, married lady. Got your attention now don't I. A lady I am, married? Well I'm looking. I was found looking on a street in Texas. I then spent time in a shelter. Dalmatian rescue found a foster home there for a short time, and then a foster home here in Colorado. After another four months I then got my forever home and my FOREVER Mom- Pat Wood. Since I came from deep in the heart of Texas, Mom added Rose to my name. I like it - Sadie Rose. Sounds so hip, plus catchy to attract the boys. You see I have an in with animal control as we walk Belmar Park every morning. They greet me with treats. They all love me so they will be able to tell me who are the good guys from the bad ones. I'll keep you posted. There are two I have my eye on. Poma a rescued border collie, we look so good together, the black and white dominos. Then there is Charlie the BIG coonhound, a rescue also. I'm still young, only one and a half, so I have plenty of time.

For now, I need a job. I'm very agile and discreet, so maybe a private investigator or a model. I love fashion and wear it well. Any color looks good on me. And my look will steal your heart. You see I am part Dalmatian and probably part Whippet. A lady in the park said to my Mom "oh she's a Dipit". Hey that could be my modeling name "Miss Dipit".

Boy do I have lots of toys, 25 in all and counting! Pinky my pink elephant, Slimmy my green snake, Squeakey my big ring and Sunshine my yellow dog are my favorites. Mom is teaching me to fetch them by name. I'm getting really good at it - so bring on the toys!

We had lots of snow this winter and on those days, Mom made trails for me in the backyard. I can circle the entire yard or cross over where she makes a big circle. I love my Mom. After we'll come in and cuddle in bed or on my favorite chaise and watch TV. Oh what a wonderful life!

Thank you to all who helped get me to my forever home. You are such compassionate, loving, and caring angels. You nurture us, love us, and give us confidence to go on. I love you all. You'll be in my heart forever. I'll make you proud as follow my accomplishments.

Love Sadie Rose

When is Mom coming home?

Stylin' in my new winter coat and boots!!

That's my toy!! Squeakey!

After a day of fun and excitement, it's time for a nap!
