

Mia

(aka Mia3)

Where to begin....

Meet Mia. Mia is quite the character - but it is why we love her dearly. My boyfriend and I have had the pleasure of being Mia's owners well more like best friends for about a month or so now.

Oddly enough we had animal fever and were searching for declawed cats for adoption. Why a cat, you say. Well Matt and I live in an apartment with similar schedules – we never thought we would be able to find a dog that would meet all the requirements necessary in order for us to adopt him or her. Then came Mia.

We knew we needed a dog that didn't mind being indoors while we were away. We needed a dog that was already potty trained. We need him or her to enjoy car rides and that wouldn't keep the entire complex awake at all hours with barking. I wanted a dog that would enjoy morning runs with me and being my office partner from time to time. But we also wanted a dog that was sweet and funny. We are a weird couple with weird personalities and we wanted a dog that would fit right in.

When we inquired about Mia we honestly thought there was no way she would ever meet each and every requirement we had. Well, we were wrong. She was PERFECT. We inquired about her on Sunday, met her on Monday and that was that.

We already love and adore Mia with such a huge chunk of our hearts. She is currently my morning running buddy. She loves to rip my arm off every time she sees a squirrel or rabbit. She loves taking car rides with us even if it is just down the street for a quick trip to the grocery store. She loves to chew up every single toy we buy her. We discovered tennis balls will not survive more than an hour. She loves fetch but she loves tug of war more so getting her to drop the ball after the fetch part, well – that doesn't happen. She is easily occupied for hours with bones or squeaker toys. She likes to try and pee like a boy and is beyond grouchy when she needs a nap. But the thing I love most about Mia is she is beyond sweet and loving. She loves to snuggle and will gladly sit in your lap with her butt in your face. She's always up for a cuddle session and ready to lick your face if you give her the opportunity.

She loves her morning runs and her evening walks and we are currently working on some off leash stuff. Also on the list of new things – we will be trying out our first dog park this weekend along with a trip to Grandma and Grandpa's country lake home in Nebraska later this month.

We always knew we wanted a dog – We just didn't realize when we were actually ready to get one that we would ever get so lucky.

Our sincerest thanks to Ashton and Tom and Dalmatian Rescue of Colorado.

Matt & Brandi

